

course syllabus
for course number: U350-312
course title: Willa Cather publishing year: 1994

Number of credits or CEUs: 1 credits _____

Prerequisites: Introductory course in literature or consent of adviser

Course materials:

Required

1. Course Guide
2. Death Comes for the Archbishop, by Cather (1955)
3. My Antonia, by Cather (1954)
4. The Professor's House, by Cather (1953)

Course description: In this course three Cather novels demonstrate her remarkable versatility. Students will examine her portraits of the immigrant experience, the fear of aging, and the hunger for love and acceptance.

Unit topics:

- Willa Cather
- The Writer and Writing
- My Antonia
- The Professor's House
- Death Comes for the Archbishop

Written assignments: This course requires 3 written assignments. Each of these required papers needs to be 4 to 6 double-spaced pages in length (about 1,000 to 1,500 words).

Exams: The written assignments take the place of a final examination in this course. Your grades will depend on your mastery of the material and your ability, originality, and depth in presentation. You won't receive a course grade until you've satisfactorily completed all assignments.

Grading information: Your grades will depend on your mastery of the material and your ability, originality, and depth in presentation. You won't receive a course grade until you've satisfactorily completed all assignments.