Number of credits or CEUs: 3 credits

Prerequisites: 4 semester§ of college Spanish or equivalent or consent of instructor

Course materials:
Required
1. Course guide

Course description:
This is a third-year-level (fifth-semester) language course, to be taken after Spanish 204 and before Spanish 226. Emphasis is on both reviewing all Spanish grammar previously studied and learning more advanced new material. All units except review units include a short composition.

Written assignments: 14 assignments with fill-in-the blank, add accents, short-answer, translation, and short-essay sections, and 2 review assignments with practice exams.

Exams: 2, with fill-in-the blank, add-accents, short-answer, translation, and short-essay sections

Grading information:
The final grade is computed using the following percentages:
  Written assignments: 50%
  Midcourse examination: 20%
  Final examination: 30%

Grading scale:
  A: Excellent (92–100)
  AB: Very Good (89–91)
  B: Good (83–88)
  BC: Above average (80–82)
  C: Satisfactory (71–79)
  D: Weak (65–70)
  F: Failure (64 and below)